

Hague complies with all current non-discriminatory legislation and is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

HAGUE COMPUTER SUPPLIES LTD:-

- Acknowledges its responsibility to promote equal opportunities and race relations in all areas of work.
- Is an Equal Opportunities Employer in all areas of employment. We are committed to equality in the recruitment, training and promotion of all staff.
- Seeks to ensure that all Employees, job applicants, customers and suppliers are treated fairly.
- Ensures that all job vacancies are advertised using methods that do not unfairly restrict or discriminate against applicants.
- Ensures that interviews of applicants will only assess the capabilities of the candidate based on the requirements and specifications of the vacant position.
- States that victimisation and harassment by any member of staff is not acceptable and will be dealt with accordingly.
- Will guarantee to take action against acts which breach this policy and that disciplinary action will be taken to address any acts of unlawful discrimination by any member of staff, regardless of seniority, should it occur.
- Recognises that this policy needs to be kept under regular review to promote Equality of Opportunity to the best of its ability.
- Will ensure that recruitment, training and promotion will be monitored to make sure that all Employees have the opportunity to train and develop according to their abilities.

Graham Wain

Managing Director

For and on behalf of Hague Computer Supplies Ltd